

SOBERTON PARISH COUNCIL

Complaints Policy

Objective

1. The Parish Council's objective is to fulfil its statutory "duties" in an efficient, cost effective and civil manner, and within its "powers" to seek to influence other statutory bodies and agencies for the benefit of parishioners in relation to services. On occasion parishioners may feel the Council has not met these goals. The objective of the Complaints Policy is to put things right when they go wrong, and to prevent mistakes recurring.

What Constitutes a Complaint against a Parish Council

2. A complaint is an expression of dissatisfaction by one or more members of the public about the Parish Council's action or lack of action, or about the standard of service delivered by the Council. The complaint may relate to an action taken, a service provided by the Council itself or a person or body acting on behalf of the Council.

Complaints against Soberton Parish Council

3. A complaint against Soberton Parish Council may arise for reasons in paragraph 2 above. It may also be triggered by an allegation of administrative fault such as not following procedures or standing orders, inadequate service, no service, delay or making a mistake.
4. When a complaint is made against Soberton Parish Council, member(s) of the council or staff are likely to be mentioned or complained about. However, a complaint against a council should be treated as a complaint against the body corporate of the council, not as a complaint against individual employees or member(s) of the Council.

Complaints against Council Staff

5. A complaint against Soberton Parish Council that involves a complaint about the conduct of its employees must be handled in accordance with its complaints procedure. If, following the outcome of the complaint, the council decides that there may be a need to take disciplinary action, this should be in accordance with its internal disciplinary procedure.

6. Members are free to raise matters of concern in respect of Council business by the submission of motion(s) on the agenda for relevant meeting(s) where the issue can be formally considered and resolved. Alternatively, if a member has concerns about the conduct of a member of staff, he/she should notify the Councillors with responsibility for staff management. The Councillors with responsibility for staff management are responsible for deciding whether the member's concerns raise disciplinary issues to be dealt with in accordance with the Council's Disciplinary Procedure.

Nature of Complaint

7. Before making a complaint it is important to contact the Clerk to ensure Soberton Parish Council is the responsible body to handle the complaint.

The way in which a complaint is handled is dependent on the nature of the complaint; different types of complaint will be handled in different ways.

All complaints must be communicated in writing. The following table summarises how different types of written complaint will be handled by the Council.

Nature of the complaint	How to complain	Who to complain to	Who will deal with your complaint

Conduct of a Councillor	This type of complaint needs to be referred in writing to the Monitoring Officer at Winchester City Council, as Soberton Parish Council has no power to investigate the conduct of one of its own elected Members.	The Monitoring Officer at Winchester City Council WCC Councillors Code of Conduct – Arrangements for Considering Complaints – Guidance Notes can be found via the following link https://www.winchester.gov.uk/have-your-say/complaints	The Monitoring Officer. The Monitoring Officer notifies the Clerk of the complaint, who in turn notifies the Council. Matters may be lengthy if an investigation is undertaken. If the District Council decides that the Councillor has failed to comply with his/her Council's Code of Conduct, it will notify the Councillor and the Parish Council of its decision. The District Council can take no direct action against the Councillor. Responsibility for deciding what action to take against the Councillor, if any, rests with the Parish Council. It may, for example, decide to censure the Councillor, remove him/her as its representative on an external body, request the Councillor attend training

Data Protection and Confidentiality

8. To ensure compliance with its obligations in the Data Protection Act 1998, Soberton Parish Council will not disclose the identity, contact details or other personal data about an individual complainant unless he/she consents or disclosure is otherwise fair and lawful under the 1998 Act. e.g. for the purpose of discharging the council's functions, or for the performance of contractual obligations.
9. A complaint against Soberton Parish Council is personal to the complainant and will be treated as confidential unless the complainant confirms that he/she waives his/her right to confidentiality. The meeting of the relevant committee or sub-committee considering the complaint or inviting the complainant to make representations will need to exclude the public. This would not preclude the committee or sub-committee from inviting the complainant to speak at the meeting, or requesting the attendance of the Clerk (or other nominated officer) to represent the position of the council.

Receipt of the complaint

10. The Clerk or other nominated officer (or if the complaint concerns them, the Chairman of the Council or committee established for the purposes of hearing complaints (Finance Committee)).
 - a. Acknowledge receipt of the complaint in writing within 7 days
 - b. Confirm to the complainant if the complaint will be treated as confidential
 - c. Confirm the next steps in the complaints procedure.

Investigating the complaint

11. The Council will need to investigate the facts of the complaint and collate relevant evidence
12. The complainant shall be invited to attend the relevant meeting and bring with him/her such representative as they wish
13. 7 clear days prior to the meeting, the complainant shall provide the council with copies of any documentation or other evidence, which he/she wish to refer to at the meeting. The council shall similarly provide the complainant with copies of any documentation upon which they wish to rely at the meeting.

Meetings with the complainant

14. The Clerk or nominated officer, or Chairman of the Council or complaints committee, will explain how the meeting will proceed.

15. The complainant should outline the grounds for complaint and, thereafter, questions may be asked by the clerk or other nominated officer or my members if this is a meeting of the complaints committee.
16. The Clerk or other nominated officer (or if the complaint concerns them, another member of staff or a Councillor) will have an opportunity to explain the Council's position and questions may be asked by the complainant.
17. The Clerk, or other nominated officer and/or chair of the complaints committee, and then the complainant will be offered the opportunity to summarise their respective positions.
18. The complainant will be advised when a decision about the complaint is likely to be made and when it is likely to be communicated to them.

After the complaint has been decided

19. Within the above timeline, the council will write to the complainant to confirm whether or not it has upheld the complaint. The council will give reasons for its decision together with any action to be taken by the council if this is appropriate.
